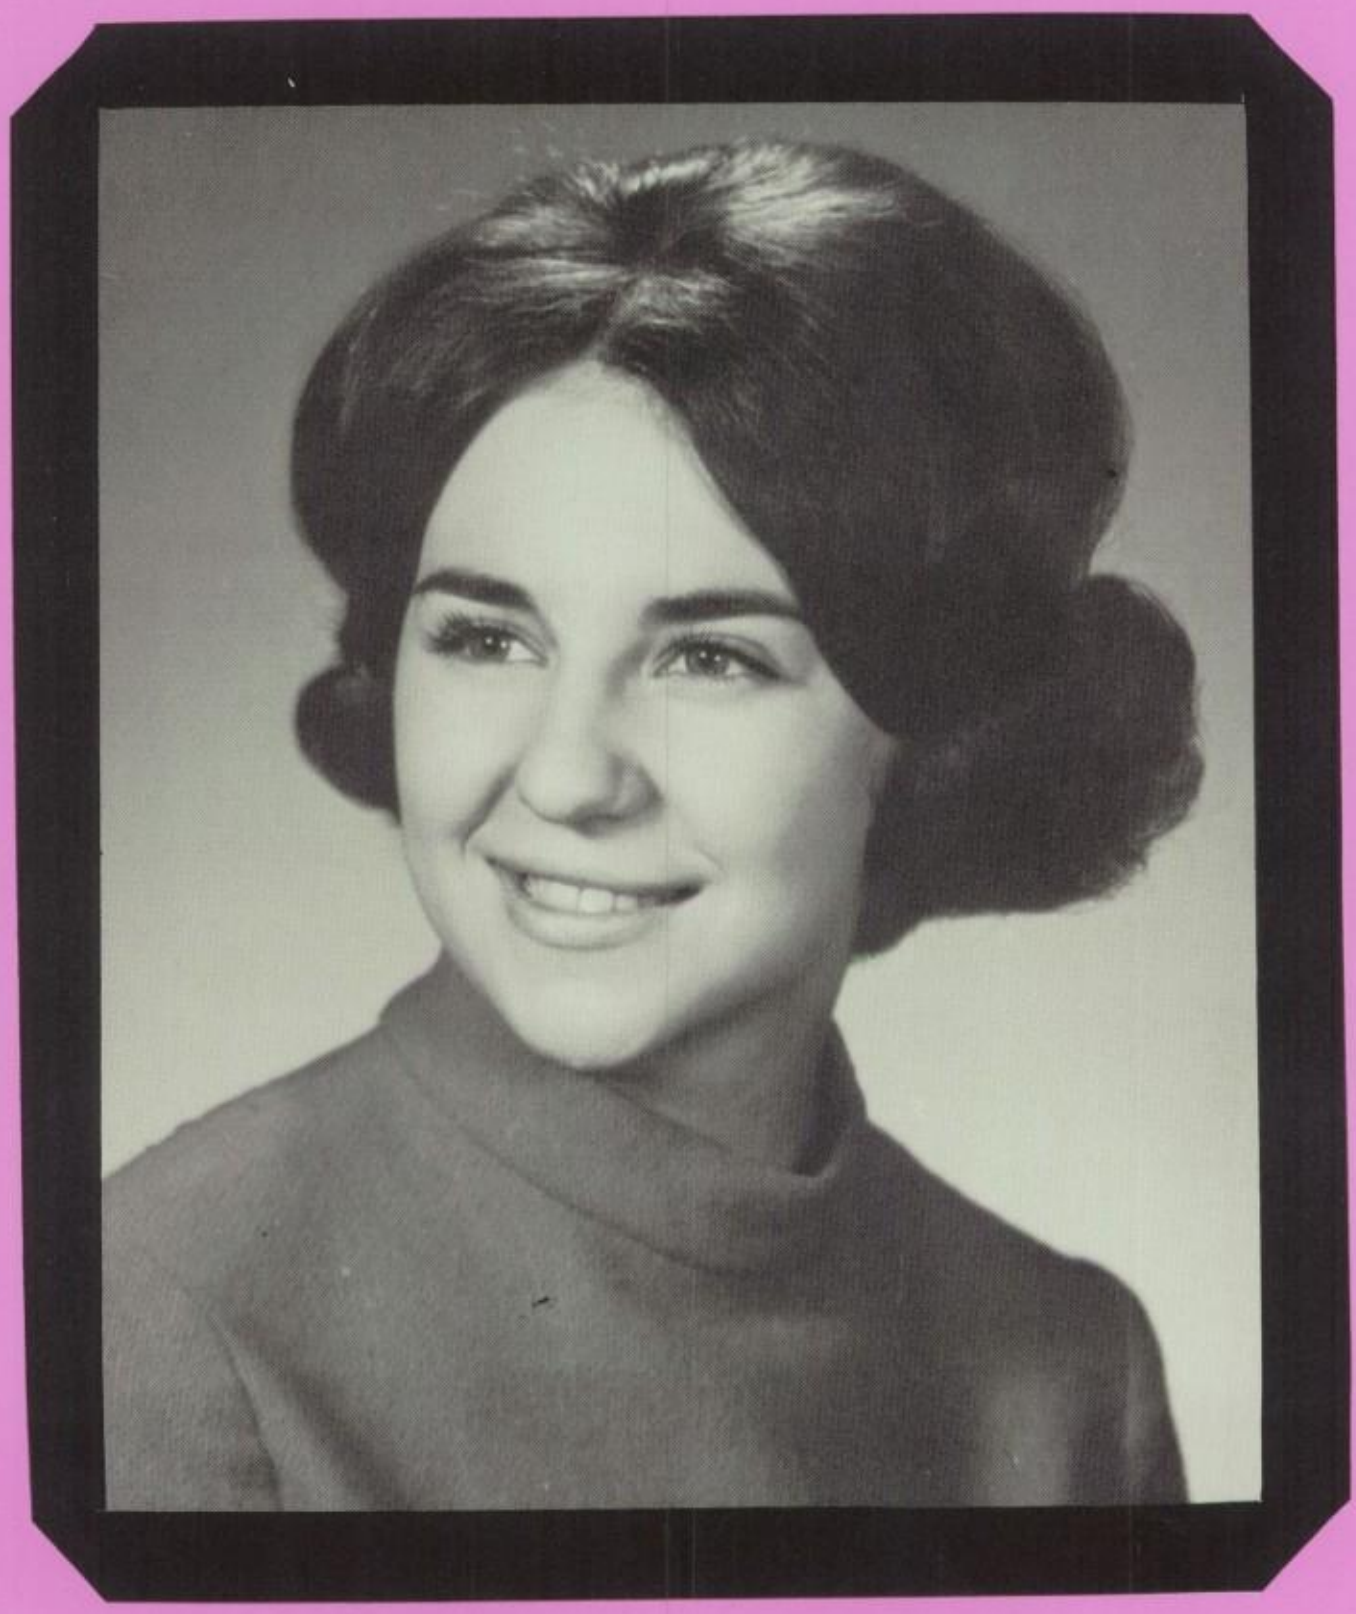
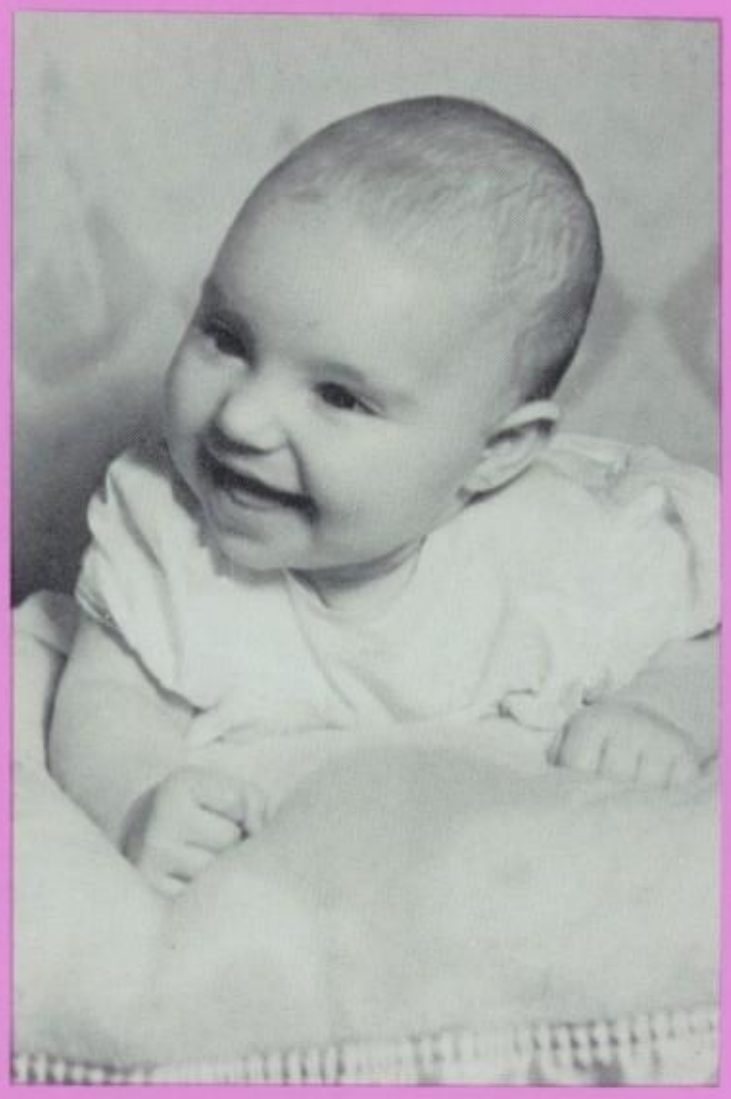
We The Senior Class
Salute You . . .
Miss Diane Zvolena



This senior class of 1972 would like to take this page, though too small a space to show our real appreciation to honor a well known teacher and friend.

This teacher, even though not being here very long has become more to us than just a teacher. She has helped us the most during our junior and senior year as advisor of our class.

Yes we do truly salute you. We are proud to have been in your class and even prouder to call you our friend. We the senior class of 1972 would like to dedicate the 57th edition of our yearbook to Miss Diane Zvolena. A sincere "Thank You" to you from deep in each of our hearts.



You've come a long way BABY!

For knowledge is of things we see."

— Tennyson

"In Memoriam"

CLASS OF '72

SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS: Merrie Hellestad, secretary; John Dede, president; Mike Kober, vice-president; missing — Shirley Jaeckels, treasurer.

"It was the best of times, it was the worst of times, it was the age of wisdom, it was the age of foolishness . . . it was the spring of hope, it was the winter of despair, we had everything before us, we had nothing before us . . . "

Dickens — "A Tale of Two Cities"

That's it. That about sums up our four years at P.H.S. We all had good times, with friends, and sometimes with teachers, and we all had bad moments, most likely facing Mr. Linster over the office counter.

Believe it or not, the best years of our lives were spent here. Things will never happen the same as those seven hours a day, five days a week, September to June, 1968 to 1972. Seems like a long time, but who can believe they're over.

The four years are gone, but they've left their impression on us. Your personality is now what it will be for all time and you're going out to test it against the world. Some people you will never see again, some people you will never wish to see again. Either way, it's all over. Your stay at P.H.S. is history.

Goodbye and good luck to each and all of you.

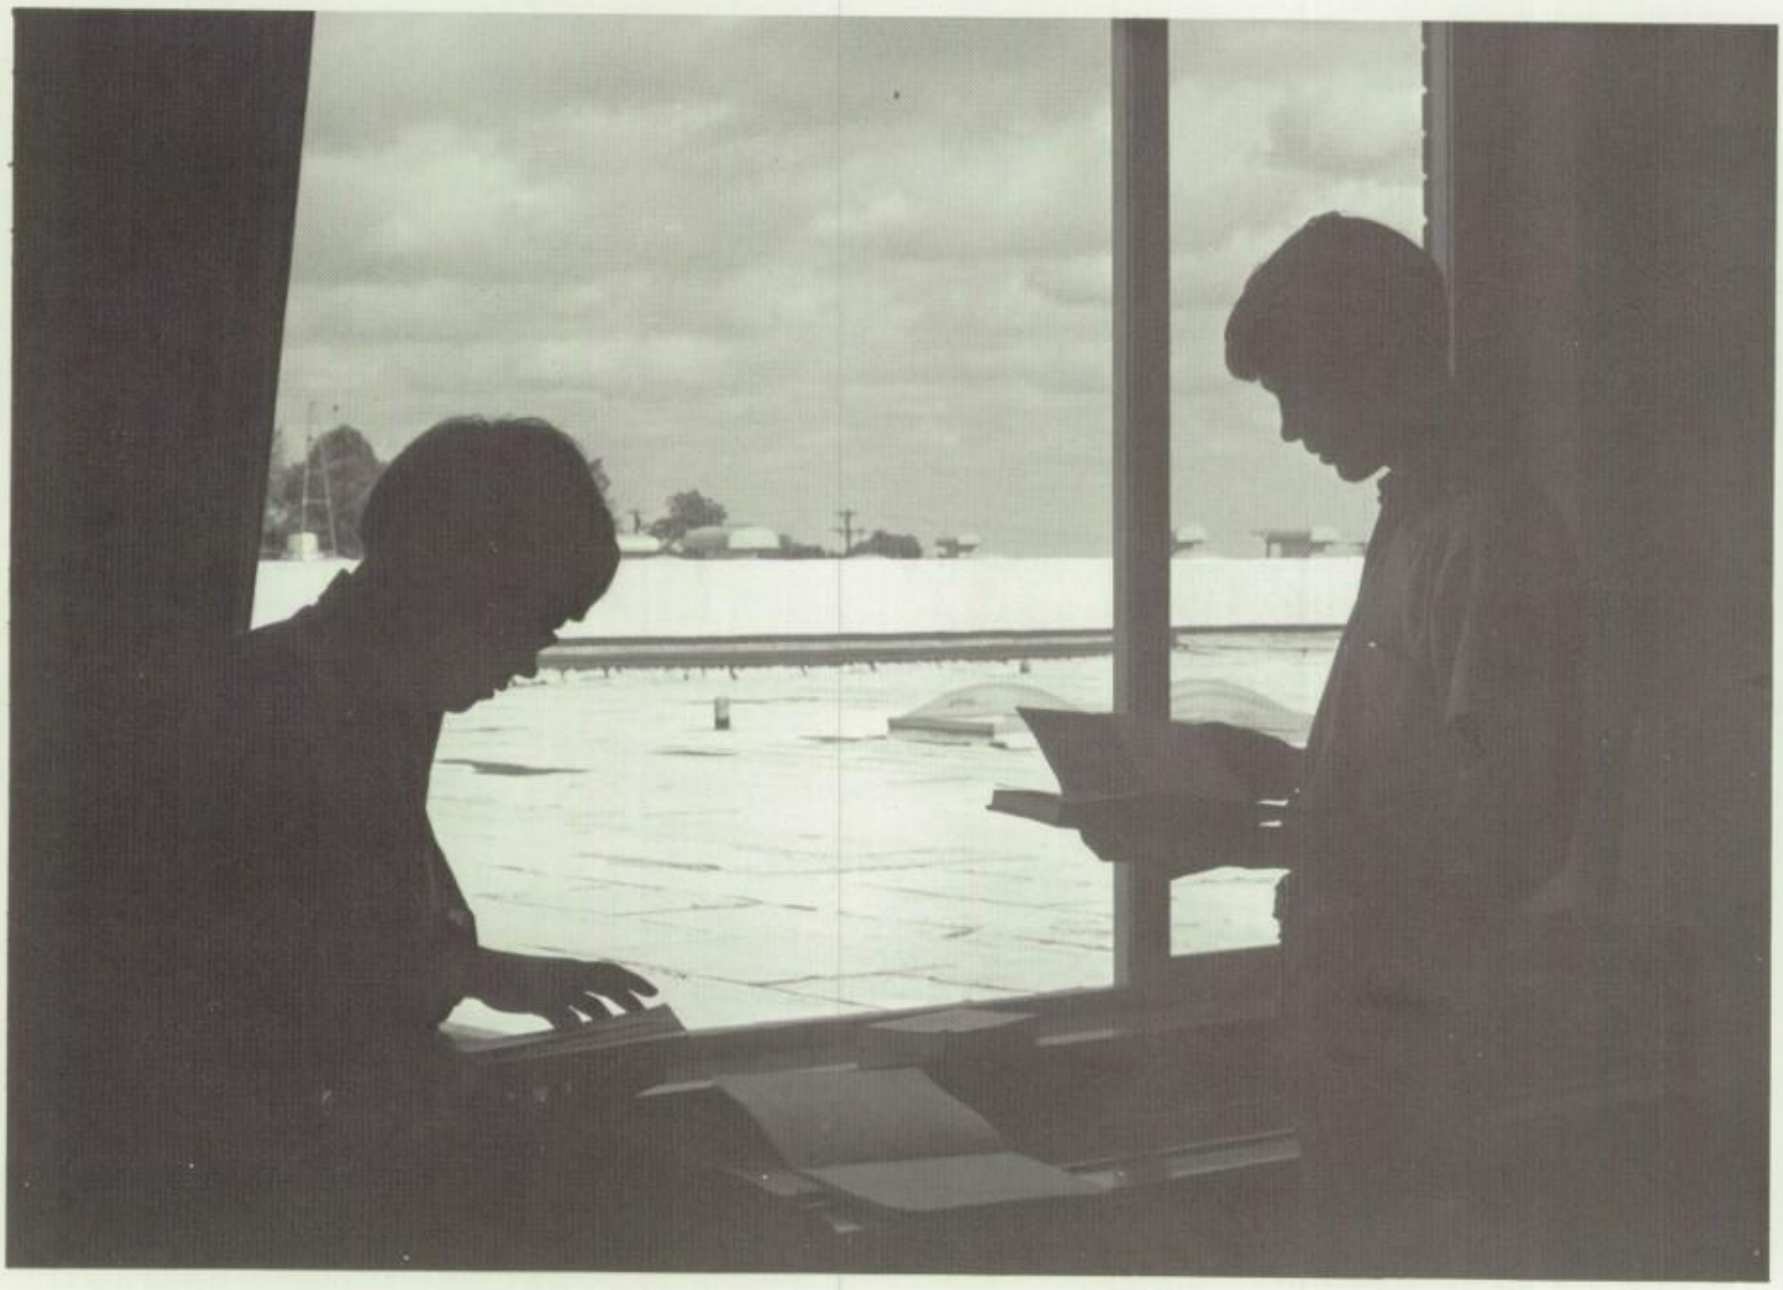
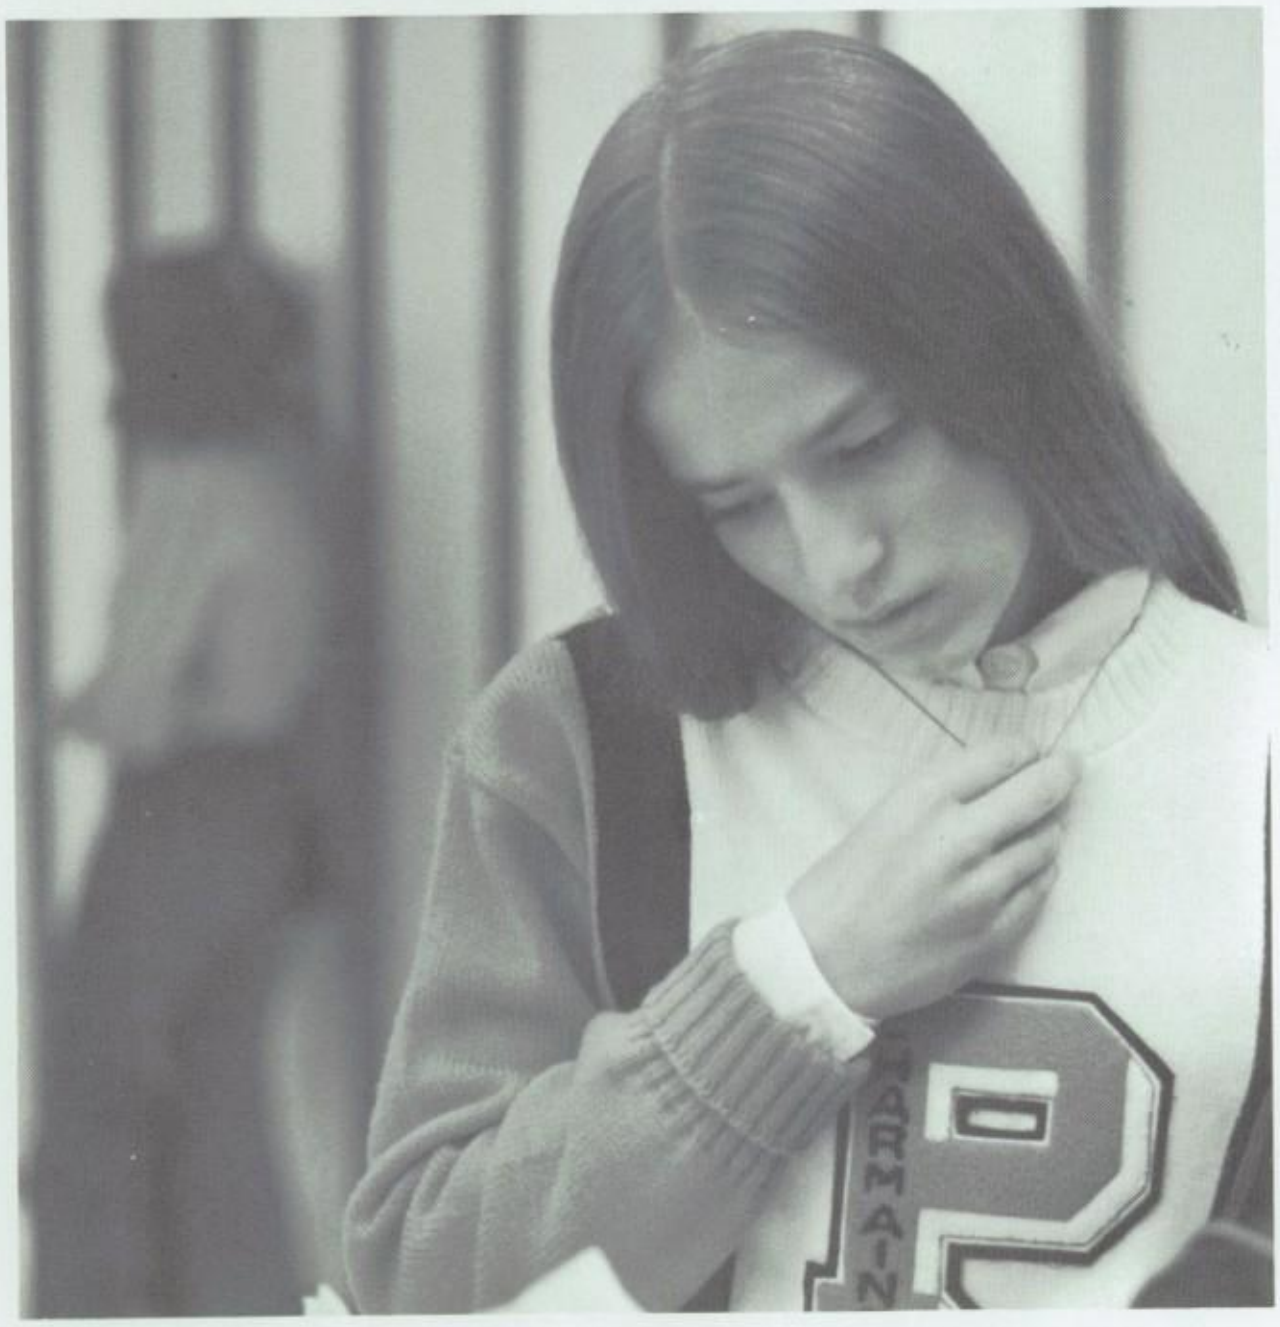
UNDERCLASSMEN





The Underclassmen . . .
Who have more enthusiam because they haven't heard
"It can't be done" as many times,
Who hesitate less, do more . . .
The Underclassmen catch on:
They learn that talking is more effective than note-passing,
That they can out-yell the seniors
at a pep assembly.
They learn . . . to think,
To reflect — to say less and wonder more.
They learn biggest isn't always best, loudest, most sincere.
That the impossible may take forever . . .
Once they stood on the stairs and
held up the whole throng,
But eventually they began to move
with the traffic.

They learn to share,
Not just a hot lunch,
But the world which they are creating.

AUNTIE MAME

"Auntie Mame" has a very good chance of being the best Senior Class Play ever put on at Plymouth High School. The play itself is excellent, an extremely funny poke at people. The set had about a month of work behind it, and the cast fit the play. The play was presented on March 10th and 11th. Directors were Mr. Rettig and Mr. Stoltenberg. Student director was Susan Steinke.

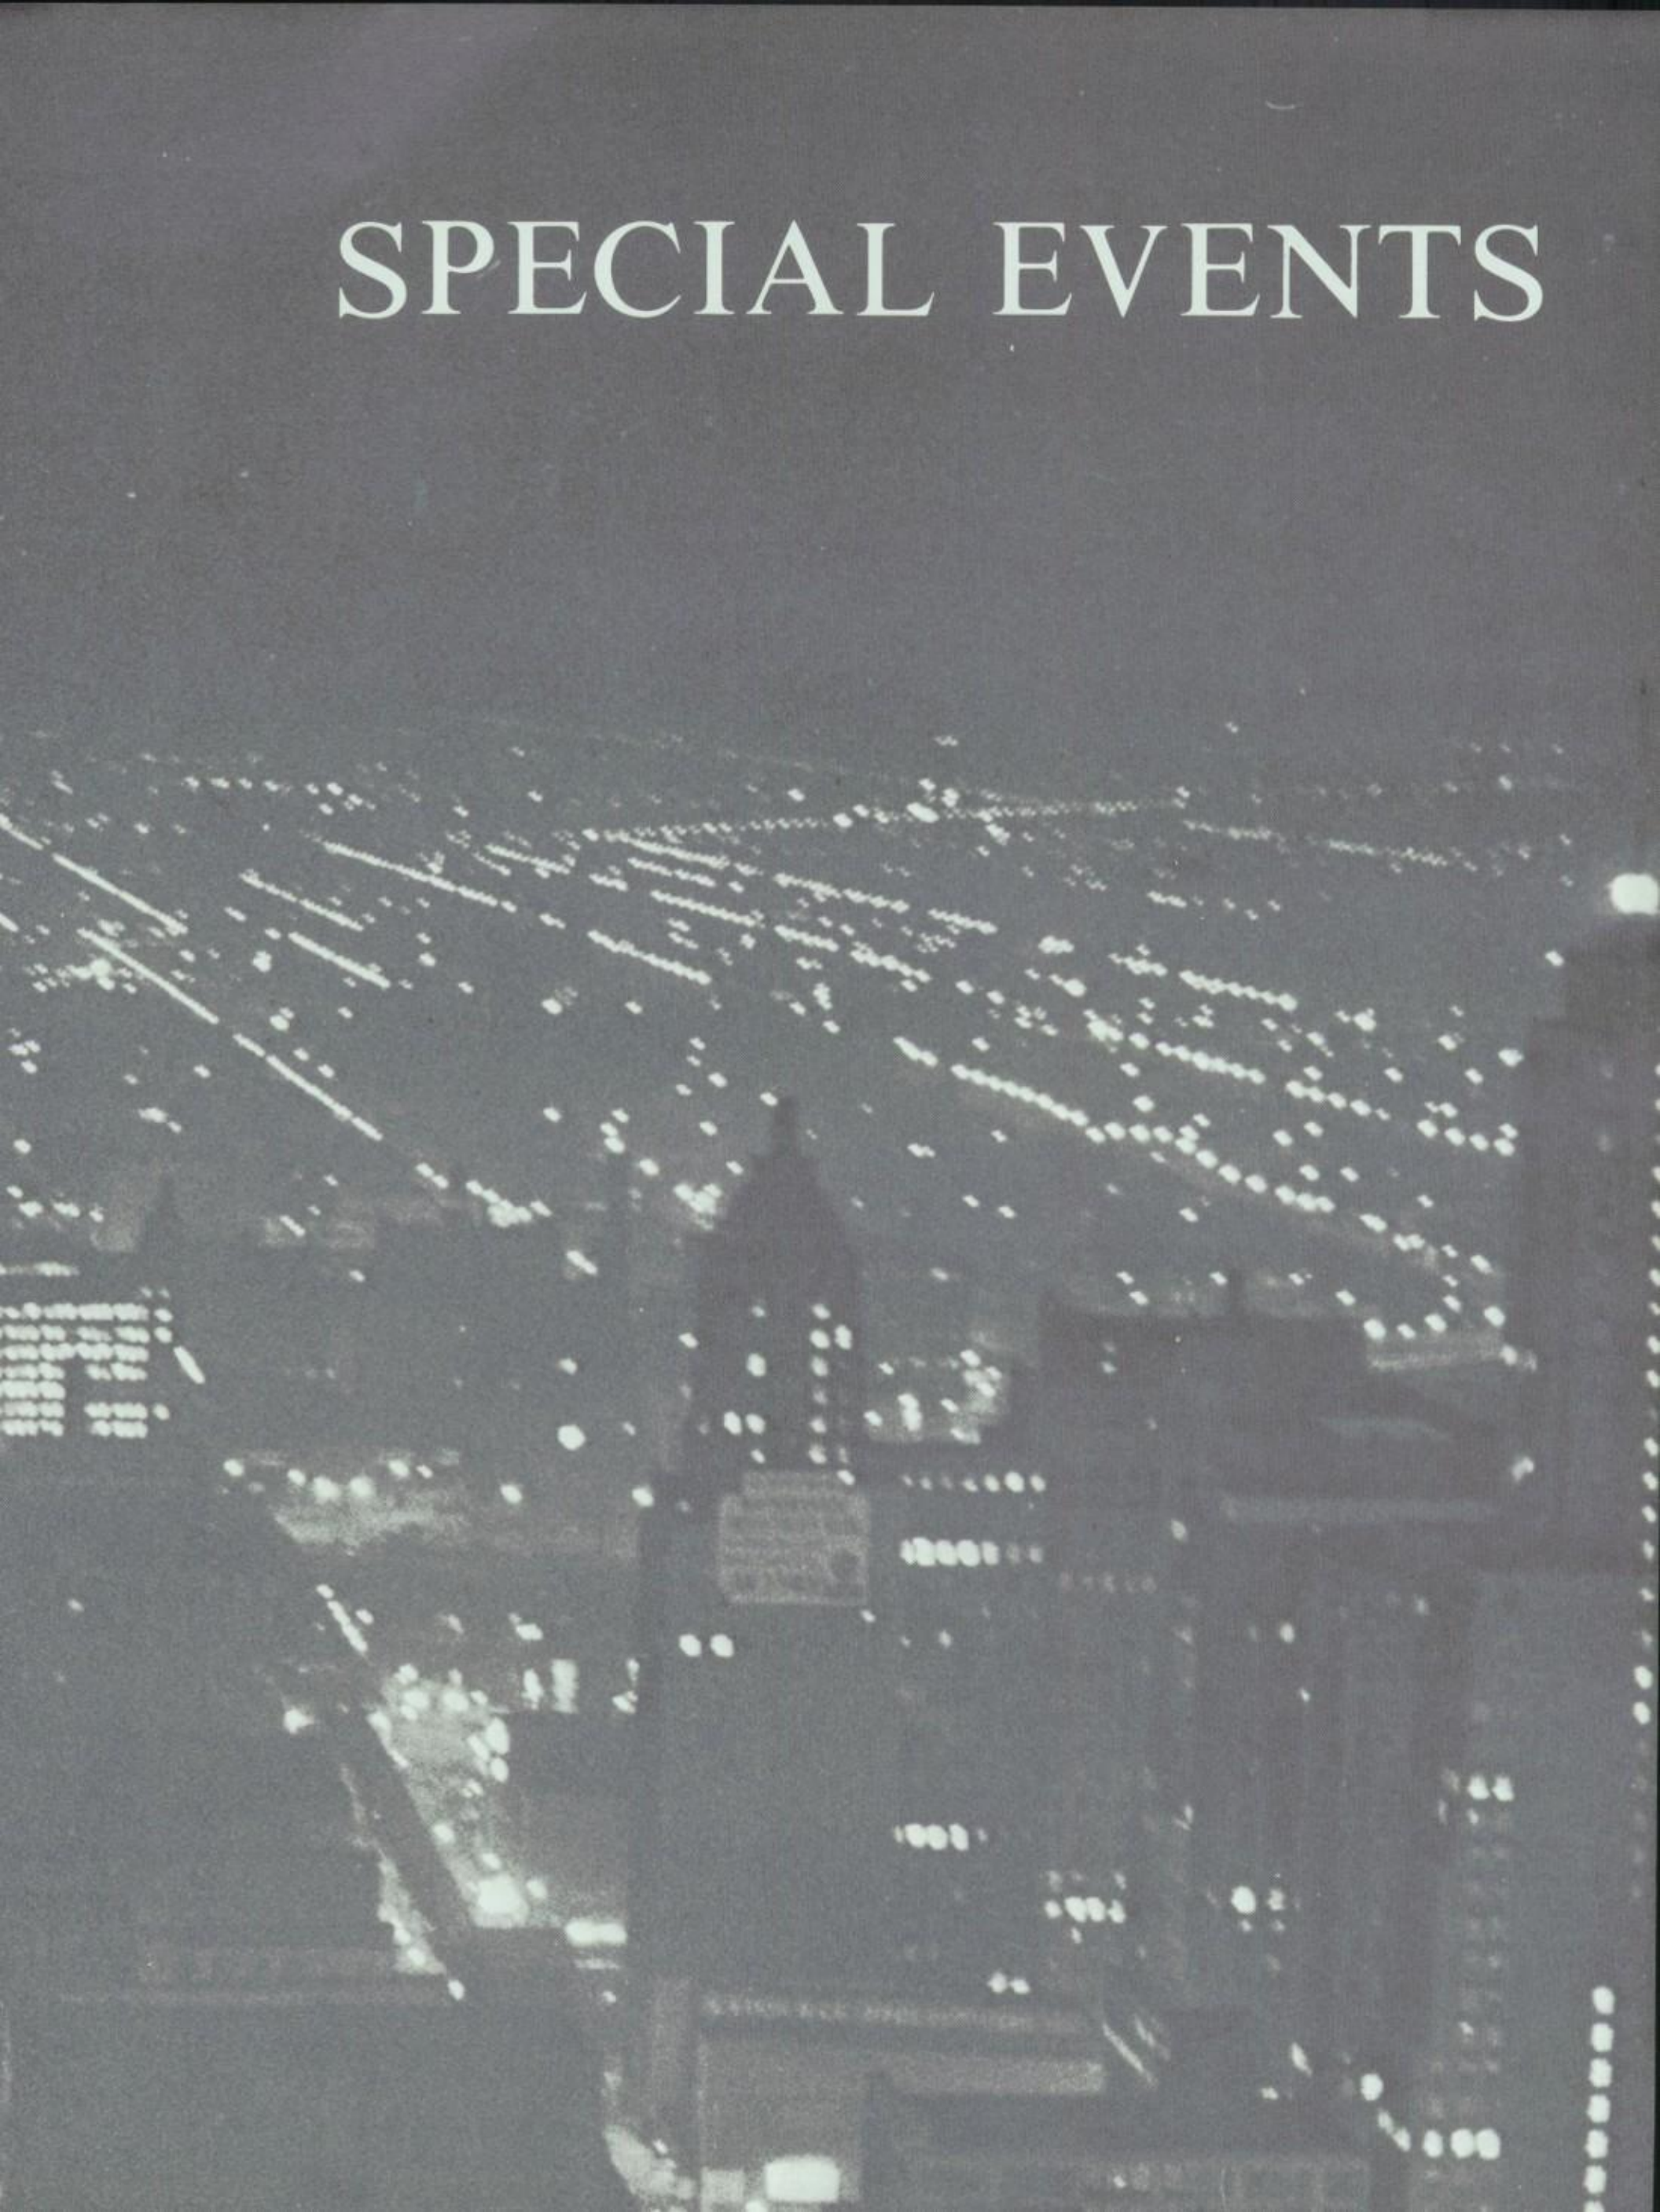
SPECIAL EVENTS



Things started off in September with Diane Kaestner.

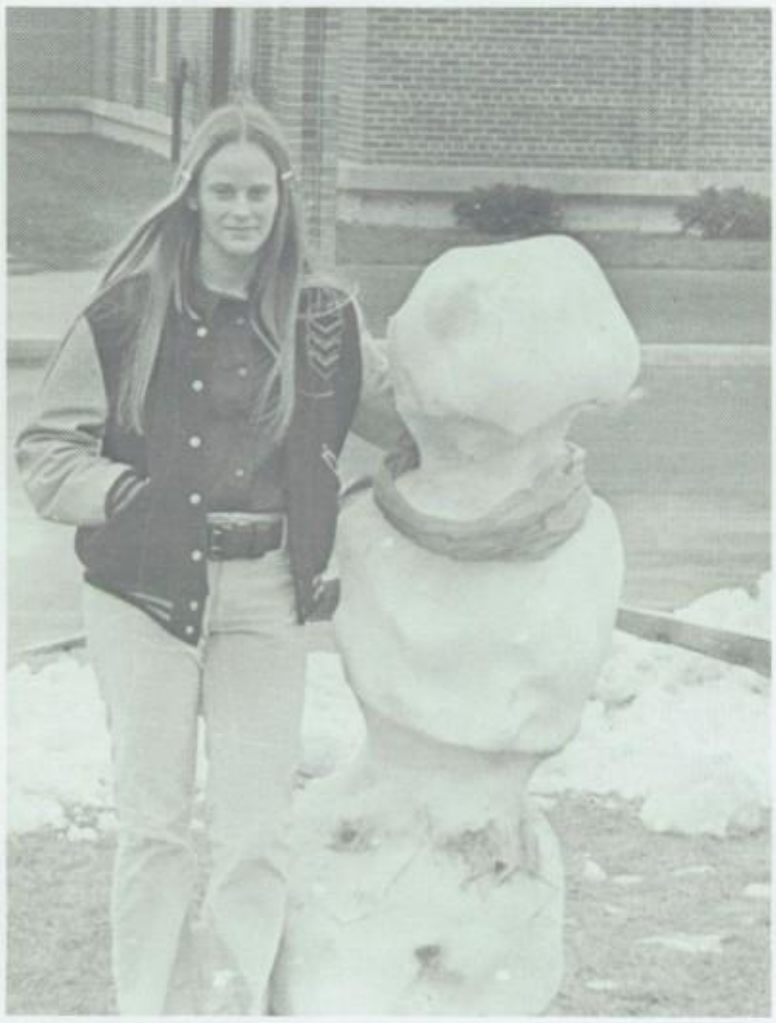
While trick-or-treating in October we found Betty Gausman.

GIRLS OF THE MONTH

The girls pictured on these two pages have all been honored with the title of being a girl of the month. The girls are chosen on acedemic record, leadership in school, good citizenship, and service to the school. Mr. Richards names one a month, and the girl then goes to a Woman Club meeting to give a speech and receive a gift. Boys of the month are no longer chosen; and at the publishing of the annual, the last two girls of the month were not announced yet.

We're thankful for Debby Stolper, brought in November.

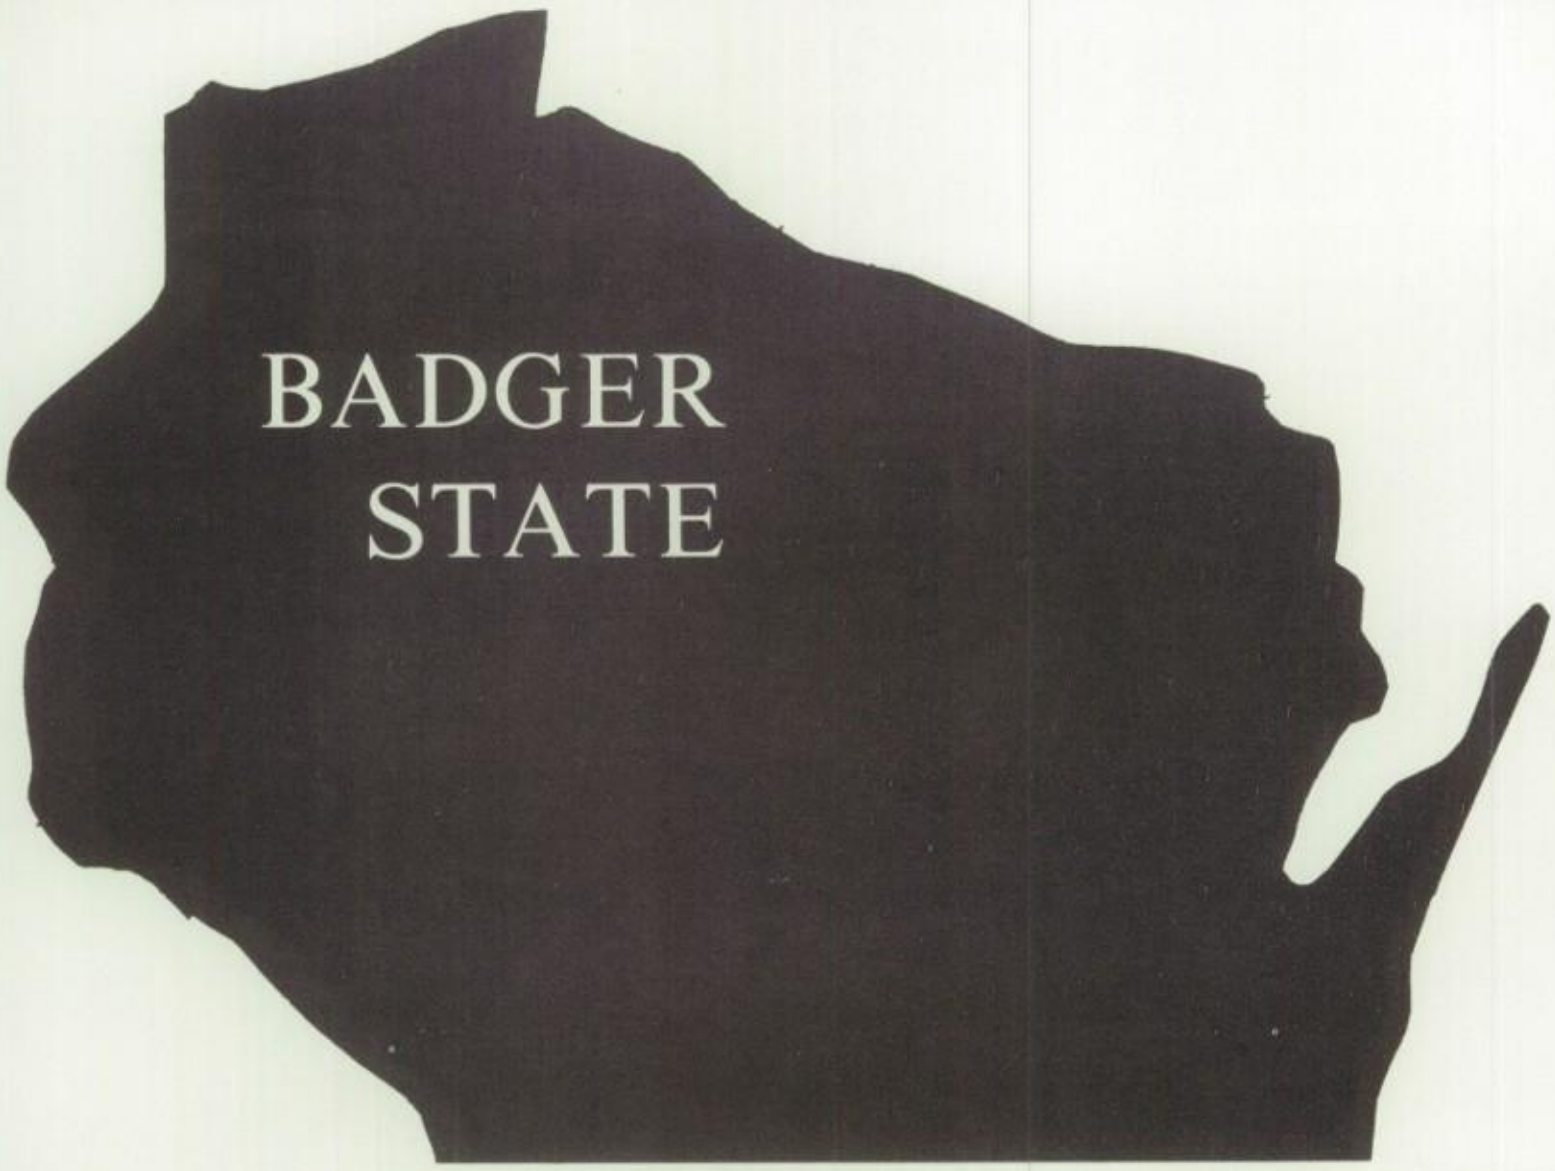
Our December Ule Tide is Jane Ule.



Kay Absterar was our January Winter Wonder Girl.

Judy Novotny was our Sweetheart of February.

Penny Gillman marches to success in March.



J. Skavlem, R. Krah, J. Perronne holding D. Stolper.

This program enables you to learn the American way of life. Its purpose is to prepare you for citizenship in a modern world where government touches your life in many different ways. It will give you first hand knowledge of state and local government which will instill in you a love of country and preserve the fundamental features of your government.

National Honor Society — The secret club you never find out about until you're in it. The members are kept in secret until the final moment when they are asked to come up on stage. The club consists of Juniors and Seniors cited for scholastic record and participation in school activities. Your character, scholarship, leadership, and service to others may make you a member of National Honor Society, so it is quite an honor to be chosen for such a club.

D.A.R. Award

The class of 1972 choose Diane Kaestner to receive the citizenship award for this year. The award goes to someone the class, faculty, and administration feel has patriotism, citizenship, service, and character.

Betty Crocker-Homemaker of Tomorrow

Karole Gundersen is this years' Homemaker of Tomorrow. Karole had the highest score of the Senior girls that took the test. General Mills sponsored the test and scholarships are given out at the local, state, and national levels.

Voice of Democracy

The winner of this years 'Voice of Democracy' contest was Betty Gausman. The contest is a tape-recorded speech on your country and is sponsored by the Plymouth V.F.W.

SADIE HAWKINS

This years' Sadie Hawkins was one of the best dances PHS has seen for a long time. Jon Skavlem was Lit'l Abner and Bonnie was Daisy Mae,. Some of the couples dressed up and with the help of a polka band, all stayed to the very end. Everyone danced throughout the night and more than a couple had bruises the next day from banging into each other out on the floor.

CHERISH

The 1971 Junior Prom will certainly bring back pleasant memories for many years to come. The theme was "Cherish" and the setting, a park scene, added to the enjoyment. King Jeff Giffin and Queen Cathy Henry were crowned in the center of the cafeteria on a large veranda; and after leading the grand march, all joined in to dance away the evening to the music of Bob Malada and his orchestra. 'Omaha' played at post prom which brought an equally large crowd. All in all, the prom will always be remembered as one of the finest nights in our high school days.

HOMECOMING '71

Homecoming 1971 was a stunning success beginning with the pep rally and ending with the dance. King Steve Groene and Queen Jen Stoll were crowned in front of a packed auditorium. The winners of class competition were then announced. Seniors in the yelling division and Freshman over all. Yes, you read it right — Freshman.

It rained for the parade the next morning, but all were smiling as if they knew what the afternoon would bring. One of the highlights of the parade was a pig getting off the Junior float and running into the crowd.

The game was a complete success. The fans were wild as the Panthers brought them a 22-14 victory over the Kiel Raiders.

The dance was also wonderful and will surely leave the memories of a wonderful weekend to us all.

MARGARET POLLOI AFS STUDENT FROM MICRONESIA

For all the people in Plymouth:

At this point, I would like to give the city of Plymouth my sincere thanks for helping in bringing an AFS student to their community. I know that if it weren't for you, I wouldn't have been here for my senior year in high school.

Never before did I leave my country to study in a different part of the world. I don't regret that I left my home, because this one whole year proved to be the most exciting experience I ever had. I would say I was lucky to come to the United States, a country of great sights and unimaginable inventions.

I firmly appreciate what my American family has done for making my stay a successful one. I also believe that I have acquired some new understanding from what I learned in school. I can assure you that I enjoyed every minute around the school campus mainly because of the surrounding students and their big SMILES! Above all, I can always go back to Micronesia and tell all my friends that I really saw and touched snow, which we don't have in our country.

Before I conclude my letter I would like to comment on one thing, "you American people are really great and kind — especially the people in Plymouth."

Very truly yours,
Margaret Franz Polloi

Career or College Prep?

There was a time when graduating from high school meant the end of the educational voyage through life. The graduate was well trained for most of the white and blue collar jobs society offered.

Today, more than ever, a high school education is a necessary ingredient to success. Some of you may choose to attend a vocational school, university, or some form of higher education to further improve your special skills.

Whichever decision you make, we at Thorp wish you success in all of your future endeavors.
